What is Miniature Wargaming?

Miniature wargaming is kind of like chess, but on a much larger scale. Players simulate historical battles using small figurines and miniature scenery (hills, forests, roads, fences, buildings, etc.). Army movements are guided by rulers and combat is governed by dice rolls. Miniature wargaming illustrates history and encourages critical thinking, social interaction, and the development of good decision making. Plus, it's a LOT of fun!

SCHEDULE: (It's a trip through time!)

| MONDAY                           | TUESDAY                | WEDNESDAY                 | THURSDAY         | FRIDAY                                   |
|---|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------|---|
| Ancient Romansvs. Egyptians | MedievalCrusaders | Napoleonvs. Russians | WWIIBattles | Alternate History:War of the Worlds |

Each day features a discussion of history, game rules, strategy skills, & recreated battles where participants control their own armies and make tactical decisions. Will history repeat itself? Or will new victors emerge? Join the fun and find out! All games will start at 10:00 am. Participants should arrive by 9:45 am.
